

Briar Blundell

Briar Blundell has music running through his veins!

After years of performing on stages, recording in studios and spending countless hours on the road - including touring alongside his father, Australian country music legend James Blundell - Briar has forged his own path as a compelling emerging singer-songwriter.

Drawing on a lifetime of musical experiences, Briar's songs are built around honest, organic storytelling, delivered through his warm, distinctive vocals, evocative guitar tones and slide playing. Combined with his intimate and engaging performances, these elements create a genuine connection with audiences, leaving them captivated and wanting to hear more.

Briar's influences are many and varied, with some of the most influential being James Blundell, Tom Petty, Shawn Colvin, Jackson Browne, Steve Earle, Joni Mitchell, Emmylou Harris, Lawrie Minson, Mark Knopfler, Chris Whitley, David Gilmour, Mike Campbell, Lindsey Buckingham and Joe Walsh.

With a growing reputation for authentic songwriting and memorable live performances, Briar Blundell is quickly making his mark on the Australian music scene. His music is as heartfelt as it is unforgettable, and he is currently working towards his debut release as a recording artist.
